- 1. Two medium and long wave transmitters are under development at Funkwerk Koerenick for delivery to Rumania. Their power is not known. It is believed that the rower will be less than 50 km in view of the fact that a total of only 50,000 km was made available for their development. Holfgang kruske, Deputy Head of Area (Bereich) I, Transmitter kesturch and Development, and just the same time, head of the Department for the Development of Large Transmitters (TLD) is in charge.
- 2. Truske, formerly an eager member of the Hitler SS, is now an eager member of the CED. His main function is the maintenance and modernization of Last Seman transmitters. He is convergent with transmitter development although he is not an outstanding expert in the field.
